FOR JUST ATTORNEY,

D. W. WILSON.

FOR TREASURER,

WILLIS STEWART.

FOR AUDITOR,

GEORGE E. GREENE.

FOR ASSEMBLY,

WILLIAM H. JOHNSTON, JR.

FRIDAY, APRIL 6, 1855.

Election Tickets.

Candidates can have their tickets printed at this office at cheap rates.

50¢ each are selling at $7.60 to $9 per box, according to quality. Extra lots at $2000.00 60.

We take pleasure in stating that the John Harris reported in our police reports yesterday morning, is not John Harris, the well known paper boy, of this city.

The Cincinnati Commercial of yesterday announced that General Leslie Combe would live an address at the Merchants Exchange, in this city, on the subject of the Lexington and Danville Railroad.

We were present at the meeting last night, at the corner of Floyd and Market streets. The proceedings of the meeting will be found elsewhere. Speeches were made by Messrs. John Warren, P. N. Jarvis, and others, and are published in the Third Ward Know Nothing.

LETTER FROM MADISON, IND.

WEATHER AND RIVER.

CINCINNATI, April 5.—The river is falling slowly. The weather is wet, and it has been raining all day.

CINCINNATI, April 6, M.

The weather is wet.

THE CASE OF THE U. S. MARSHAL.

The Opinion of Judge McLean.

The statement under which the U. S. Marshal was suspended to implement for an illegal contempt of court in refusing to produce Rosetta Armand, was not so well founded as was a second opinion before Judge Parker, declared in full and void.

Alerman Weatherford, from a committee of citizens, reported to the Board of Aldermen, that the second reading of the bill, which was ordered to a second reading, and the second reading being dispensed with, was passed.

Alerman Weatherford, from a committee of citizens, reported to the Board of Aldermen, that the second reading of the bill, which was ordered to a second reading, and the second reading being dispensed with, was passed.

The resolution, that the authorities were uniform on the subject of whether the decision of the court was correct, was passed.

Resolved by the General Council of the city of Louisville, That P. C. Tracy, tax collector of the city, be directed to allow the following credit on his credit:

1. To the Louisville Commercial $100.
